From Monday July 9. to Thursday July 12. 1683.

Whitehall, July 11.

THe following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty, and by Him very graciouſly receiv'd.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Dread Soveraign,

WE Your Majeſties moſt Loyal, Dutiful, and Faithful Subjects, your Commiſſioners of the Lieutenancy within your City of London, reflecting upon, and ſeriouſly conſidering that a late Horrid and Damnable Conſpiracy was had amongſt divers perſons of Factious, Tumultuous, and Rebellious Spirits, known Diſſenters from the Religion eſtabliſhed within theſe Your Majeſties Kingdoms, and Common Enemies to Monarchy it ſelf. And that they had thereupon reſolved the Deſtruction of Your Sacred Perſon, and alſo of His Royal Highneſs: which by the Infinite Providence of the Almighty God hath been diſcovered. Do with all humility and thankfulneſs bleſs his Holy Name for this his mighty Deliverance, and for his Mercies to us in this his miraculous preſervation of Your Sacred Life, and the life of Your Dear Brother.

And, Dread Sir, we humbly crave leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will with all true zeal and reſolution upon all occaſions, not only uſe thoſe Arms your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to intruſt us withal, but alſo with Chearfulneſs adventure our Lives and Fortunes both for the Defence of your Sacred Life (which we pray God long to continue) and alſo for preſervation of the Crown in its right and lineal courſe of Deſcent, and the Government as it is now eſtabliſhed both in Church and State, in Defiance, and to the utter Deſtruction and Confuſion of all the Enemies thereof.

And ſhall Daily pray for your Majeſties long and proſperous Reign over us.

To the Kings Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Readers, Benchers, Ancients, Barriſters, and Students of the Society of Grays-Inn.

Dread Soveraign,

WE Your Majeſties Moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects being aſtoniſhed at the Treaſonable and horrid Conſpiracies againſt Your Majeſties Sacred Perſon and Royal Brother James Duke of York, deſigned and contrived by Fanatical Diſſenters, and other wicked and deſperate perſons, to extinguiſh the Royal Family, to ruine and ſubvert this ancient and flouriſhing Monarchy, and to involve this and all other your Majeſties Kingdoms in blood and confuſion: Do with all imaginable joy and chearfulneſs congratulate the happy and miraculous deliverance of your Sacred Perſon and Royal Brother from ſuch impious and execrable machinations: and for the preſervation, and in defence of your Majeſties Royal Perſon, your Heirs and Succeſſors, and your Government in Church and State, as by Law eſtabliſhed, againſt all ſuch Treaſonable Conſpiracies, and Traiterous Aſſociations, We your moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects, ſhall always readily and heartily expoſe and ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, and continually offer our humble and fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that your Majeſties Reign may be long, proſperous, and glorious over us.

To the Kings Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Middleſex, and the Grand Jury, being the Body of the County, Aſſembled at Hick's-hall in Quarter Seſſions.

SHEWETH,

THat ſo ſoon as the Court was opened and the Jury Sworn, before we entertained any buſineſs, we thought it our duty to acknowledge, and bleſs God for the mercy we have received by the miraculous deliverance, which he hath been graciouſly pleaſed to vouchſafe to Your Majeſty and Your Loyal and moſt obedient Brother James Duke of York, from the bloody hands of thoſe infamous Miſcreants, who conſpired not only againſt Your Lives, but alſo the Life of Your Majeſty's Kingdom and Monarchy; a deſign ſo horrid, the firſt notice thereof ſtruck us with ſo great an Amazement, that we have not yet recovered ſenſe ſufficient to conſider the danger or acknowledge the mercy as we ought: We muſt confeſs, we Your Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, have for ſeveral years laſt paſt, obſerved the unquiet Spirits of this ſort of men; (Diſſenters from the Church of England ) and have preſumed in our frequent Addreſſes to Your Majeſty (wherein ſome men thought us very forward and impertinent) to acquaint Your Majeſty with our Apprehenſions of thoſe Conventicles, we doubt not but Your Majeſty is now convinced that we proceeded not by Paſſion but Reaſon, for although Your Majeſty's life (which God long preſerve) is of more value and conſideration than a hundred millions of ours; yet our lives are Ours, and Self-preſervation is an argument of mighty force to engage every man to look about him, to diſcover from whence Danger may come. Your Majeſty now ſees out of what Quiver theſe poyſonous Shafts are drawn. We are humbly of opinion that thoſe dangerous Meetings, the Conventicles, are not to be ſuffered, nor the perſons who frequent them, truſted, either with Employment, or Arms, by which they may diſturb the publick Peace; That Auguſt Aſſembly the Houſe of Commons, was heretofore purged by that Teſt, the Sacrament, according to the Church of England. If Fountains be pure the Streams cannot be corrupt. Your Majeſty hath Your Character and Wiſdom from God, and are the light of our Eyes; if that light ſhould be extinguiſhed how black and diſmall would our darkneſs be! We are therefore obliged by Duty and Intereſt, to beſeech Your Majeſty to have a care of Your

Sacred

Sacred Perſon, and to permit Your Wiſdom to controul Your Mercy, that Juſtice may take place, and bring theſe moſt execrable Villains and Traytors to condign Puniſhment. And we do aſſure your Majeſty, that our Lives and Fortunes, and our conſtant endeavours ſhall be to preſerve your Majeſties Perſon, and your Royal Brother, and the Government of this your Majeſties Kingdom, in Church and State, and by Law eſtabliſhed, from all your Enemies whatſoever.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Governors, and Aſſiſtants of the Scots Corporation of your Majeſties Royal Foundation, within your Cities of London and Weſtminſter, agreed upon, ſigned, and put under their Common Seal, at their Corporation Hall on the ninth day of July, 1683.

May it pleaſe your Sacred Majeſty,

AS there was never any People in the World that could be more happy under any Government than we, and your Majeſties other Subjects have been, and are under the bleſſed Influences of your Auſpicious Reign, notwithſtanding the many great Provocations your Majeſty hath met with from ill men, (deſerving indeed the name of Monſters) who have ſhaken off their Duty and Allegiance to the King of Kings, as well as to your Majeſty his Vicegerent: So we can never ſufficiently magnifie that wonderful Providence, by which your Sacred Life and your Government have been preſerved from the reſtleſs Contrivances of thoſe Agents of Hell to deſtroy both; eſpecially the damnable Conſpiracy lately diſcovered, which was deſigned for the moſt barbarous and cruel Parricide and murther of your Sacred Majeſty, and your deareſt Royal Brother, and ſo the overturning of the Government, and the utter ruine of all your Majeſties Loyal Subjects: For the early diſcovery whereof, and the many Miracles in your Majeſties Happy Reſtauration and Preſervation We do with hearts full of Joy, and true thankfulneſs, bleſs the God of Heaven and Earth; whom we will ever pray, to give to your Majeſty, after a long and proſperous enjoyment of your earthly, an everlaſting Crown of Glory.

And we do, in a due abhorrence of all tumultuous Petitionings, Combinations, Leagues, Covenants, and Aſſociations, not Authorized by your Majeſties Command, (of which we do believe the ſaid Bloody and Helliſh Conſpiracy to be the genuine and true effect) Solemnly proteſt (as we have formerly done) That as our Lives and Fortunes, and all that is dear to us, are by right at your diſpoſal; ſo they ſhall never be wanting to be expoſed to the greateſt Dangers, in the Service and Defence of your Majeſty, your Lawful Heirs and Royal Succeſſors, and the Government as it is now eſtabliſhed by Law; which is no leſs the ſincere Reſolution, than the unqueſtionable duty of,

Dread Soveraign,

Your Majeſties moſt Loyal, moſt dutiful, and ever obedient Subjects and Servants.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of your Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, and of the Grand Jury Sworn at this preſent Quarter Seſſions, held for the ſaid City and Liberty, the ninth day of July, in the Five and Thirtieth year of your Majeſties Reign.

In moſt humble manner.

THey do ſhew unto your moſt Gratious Majeſty, that they are not at all aſtoniſhed that ill men who have been long ſowing cauſeleſs Fealouſies and Fears, the Seeds of Sedition and Diſcontent among your Majeſties Subjects, ſhould at laſt bring forth the Fruits thereof, a Traiterous Conſpiracy to compaſs the Death and Deſtruction of your Royal Perſon, and of your deareſt Brother James Duke of York: And we render our moſt humble and hearty thanks to your Majeſty for your great care of Us to whoſe extraordinary goodneſs and wiſdom in the diſcovery thereof, next under Gods Providence, we muſt attribute this great deliverance from a moſt Helliſh Deſign, contrived and carried on by the worſt of Men, Atheiſts and Fanaticks, Men, who to our great Admiration, the goodneſs of your Majeſty, and your moſt merciful Adminiſtration of the beſt Laws, could not prevail with to leave their villainous Practices, and make ſuitable returns of Gratitude and Obedience: And we do with full Aſſurance rely on your Majeſties great Juſtice, to bring them to the Puniſhment their Horrid Crimes deſerve, whereby others whom Goodneſs and Mercy will not allure, may by the Terror of juſt Puniſhment, be affrighted from the like barbarous Attempts for the future: And we do with humble and chearful hearts aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be ever ready with our Lives and Fortunes to aſſiſt and defend your Majeſty, your Heirs and Succeſſors, and your Government in Church and State, as now by Law eſtabliſhed, to the utmoſt of our Power, againſt all Traiterous Aſſociations, Attempts and Conſpiracies whatſoever.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Corporation of your Antient and Loyal City of Bath.

Humbly Sheweth,

THat we your moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, though the leaſt, yet never the laſt of the Tribes of Iſrael that have, do, or will demonſtrate their dutiful Allegiance, do herewith throw this our humble Addreſs at the Feet of your Sacred Majeſty, moſt humbly imploring your Majeſty to accept of this as you have done of other our former Oblations. That which hath reached the ears of moſt, if not all of your Subjects, is come to ours; but to none with more Abhorrence of ſuch wretched, ungrateful, and traiterous Perſons, who would not only by Bloody and Diabolical means deſtroy the moſt noble and beſt of Princes, with the moſt Illuſtrious and ever Renowned James Duke of York, your moſt dear and only Brother, but alſo therein turn into Chaos the beſt and happieſt Conſtitution of Government in the Univerſe. But bleſſed be the great Preſerver of his Iſrael, who never ſlumbers nor ſleeps, but hath ſo miraculouſly preſerved your Majeſty and your good People.

May this bleſſed Providence continue with you, your Heirs, and lawful Succeſſors to the Conſternation, and confuſion of all your, and their Enemies; while we, with the reſt of our fellow Subjects, enjoy the Bleſſing of your Auſpicious Reign, for which we will never account it dear to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, always praying your days may be long and glorious here on Earth and at laſt you may be Crowned above with an immortal Diadem.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Bayliffs and Freemen of your Majeſties Ancient Corporation and Town of Kingſton upon Thames, together with the Free-holders and Principal Inhabitants of the ſaid Town.

Moſt Gracious and Dread Soveraign,

WE your Majeſties Moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects being truly ſenſible of a moſt Traiterous and Horrid Conſpiracy of divers ill-affected

...ate persons, to compass the Death ... Your Majesties Royal Person, and ... Daughter the Duke of York, your Majes... Brother: and that to effect the same, they ... several Treasonable Consultations to make Insurrections, and have made great provision of Arms: All tending directly to the present destruction of your Majesties Most Sacred Person, and to involve your Majesties Kingdoms in Confusion and Blood; and carried on (notwithstanding their specious pretences) by known Dissenting Conventicles and Atheistical Persons; have effused our most solemn thanks and praise to Almighty God for his most gracious preservation of your Majesties Royal Person from time to time, and for bringing to light this impious and horrid Conspiracy, and we do with Hearts filled with all Loyalty and Faithfulness, assure your most Sacred Majesty, That there is no interest in this World valuable to us in comparison of your Majesties Service and Safety. And that we will always be ready with our Lives and Fortunes, to assist and defend your Majesties Royal Person, your Heirs and Successors, and the Government established in Church and State, and particularly for discovering, defeating and destroying all such Conspiracies, Associations, and Attempts whatsoever, and that we will use our utmost diligence and care that such Persons may be elected into publick Offices and Places of Trust as have been Eminent for their known Loyalty and Faithfulness to your most Sacred Majesty, and for the Preservation of the Government in Church and State established; This we do sincerely testifie and declare from the bottom of our Hearts, without any equivocation or mental Evasion whatsoever.

We His Majesties Justices of the Peace inhabiting near the said Corporation, do joyn with them in this Address.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble and Hearty Address of your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects: The High-Steward, Mayor, Under-Steward, Jurats, Common Council, and others of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton in Kent.

Dread Soveraign,

WE cannot but with Hearts filled with unexpressable Exultation, bless the wonderful goodness of Almighty God, in the timely preventing, and by unusual ways discovering the most Traiterous and Bloody Conspiracy of Multitudes of Your Majesties Subjects, of Fanatical, Atheistical and Antimonarchick principles of all sorts, degrees and qualities, inhumanely and barbarously to murder Your Royal Majesty, and Your Dearest Brother, (His Highness James Duke of York) and in consequence thereof to bring the best of Governments both in Church and State, by Law established in this Nation, into Anarchy, and apparent confusion, had it not been by even Miraculous ways prevented and discovered.

For which, as we do most Profoundly from our Hearts adore the Almighty's admirable Providence in your Deliverance, so we do on this blessed occasion renew our solemn resolutions with the utmost hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, and all that is dearest unto us, to stand by and defend Your Sacred Majesties Person, and your Lawful Heirs and Successors, against this, and all other Traiterous Conspiracies whatsoever. And to bring all those that are guilty thereof to condign punishment: Most heartily praying, That the God of Heaven, who hath so often with repeated signal mercies, preserved your Majesty so long, through so many dangers, the Monarch of this Realm, may long and happily so continue the same; and that we may never want one of your Line and Race, to govern this Nation to all Generations.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Burgesses and Commsn Council of the Burrough of Thetford in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects having understood to our great Amazement, the horrid and Execrable Conspiracy formed and carried on by Persons of dangerous Principles and ill-affected to the Government, for the Assassination of Your Majesty's Sacred Person, and of his Royal Highness Your only Brother, and for the involving this Your Majesty's Kingdom in immediate Blood and Confusion, in order to the total Subversion of the Monarchy, under which we and our Ancestors have continued for many Ages, a most happy and prosperous People, to the envy of all neighbouring Nations.

We think it our Duty with all humility to adore the Providence of Almighty God for the repeated Wonders of his Care over Your Majesty, and more particularly for the happy discovery of this horrid Conspiracy, as a mercy towards Your People, not inferior to those never to be forgotten, of Your Majesty's escape from Worceller, , and that of Your Miraculous Restauration, beseeching God ever more to continue the same gracious care over Your Sacred Person and Government.

For the support and defance of which under Your Sacred Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, against this and all other Antimonarchical Conspiracies, or Fanatical attempts whatsoever. We presume most humbly to lay our Lives and Fortunes at Your Majesty's Feet

Vienna, June 27. The Letters from Hungary say, That the Vizier of Buda is encamped with a Body of 25000 Men near Gran, with which he intends to pass the Danube, and afterwards to make an Incursion into Silesia and Moravia. To prevent which, the Duke of Lorrain has detached a considerable number of Men, as well to reinforce General Schutz, as to enable him to defend the Passages on the River Waag. The Deputies of Count Teckeley who reside here declared, That the 20th of the next Month their Masters Troops will renew the Acts of Hostility, which were suspended by the late Truce concluded between the Emperour and the Count. The Emperour has constituted Monsieur Strasman to be his Chancellour, in the place of Baron Hocker, lately deceased.

Vienna July 1. On Monday last the Sieur Strasman took the accustomed Oath of Chancellor to the Emperor, and since his Imperial Majesty has been pleased to confer upon him the Dignity of a Baron of the Empire. The Duke of Saxen-Lawenberg is returned to the Army with further Instructions to the Duke of Lorrain, how he shall govern himself in the present Juncture of Affairs. Several Expresses have of late been sent to the King of Poland, who is arrived at Cracow; according to our advices from thence, His Majesty, as is said, will march in Person with 20000 Men, to re-inforce the Emperor's Army in Hungary. The Duke of Lorrain having perfected the Fortifications of Raab, and re-inforced the Garison, with a considerable Body of Men, is posted with the greatest part of the Imperial Army near unto it. In the mean time the Grand Visier is advanced to Stat Weissemberg, within two hours of the Imperial Camp, with 50000 Foot, and 30000 Horse. Count Teckely continues with the Grand Visier. The Emperor has sent Orders to Count Chackey, to destroy the Fortifications of Nitria, and to withdraw from thence the Artillery that was sent thither for the Defence of the Place. We have fresh advice that the Turks are encamped in the Mountains called Schiltberg, and that the Duke of Lorrain continues posted with the Emperor's Forces in the Neighbourhood of Raab.

Ratisbone, July 8. On Sunday last the Imperial Commissioner, the Bishop of Aichstadt, delivered a Memorial to the Dyet on the part of the Emperour, in which, after a Deduction of what had been transacted at the late Assembly at Franckfort, and the hinderance put to the further Progress of the Treaty, by reason of the differences between the two Colledges here, several overtures are added to be made to France, viz. 1. That that Crown restore all places that they have taken contrary to the Treaty of Munster, and ascertain the Damages sustained by
